

Manifold Valley Agricultural Society.

Privacy Policy for GDPR purposes.

Relevant Legislation.

EU General Data Protection regulation 2018 (GDPR).

Personal Information that the Society holds and why.

Members names, addresses, telephone numbers and email address, used to inform Members of the Society's activities.

Exhibitors names, addresses and telephone numbers, used to confirm acceptance of fees and forward entry passes.

How we store your information.

Members, Committee and Exhibitor's information is stored on a password protected computer and paper details in a locked file.

Who can view the information?

Information is accessed, as appropriate, by the membership Secretary, Show Secretary and Trade Stand Organiser, each of whom is a Data Controller.

Shared Information.

The only information shared is a list of the Committee Members which is distributed by email or post.

Approval.

As from 25th May 2018 all those providing information are required to give their approval for the storage of relevant information if they require it to be used for the above purposes.